

Parade of Programs: Resources for Library Programming
An Illinois Library System Project
Submission Form – New Individual or Group

- ? In order to recommend an individual or group be included in "A Parade of Programs," your library must be a member of one of the twelve regional library systems in Illinois.
- ? Self-recommended submissions will not be accepted.
- ? If you need assistance in accessing or using the online submission form, please contact your regional library system.
- ? Individuals and groups that are recommended and not already included in the "A Parade of Programs" database will be contacted and their information verified before their entry is included in the database.
